BUT LITTLE PLEASURE NOW IN HOMES OF WORKERS

GIRL'S FACE BEATEN TO TATTERS; POLICE CONCEALING FACTS

With her face in tatters, her chin almost torn off, a young woman, pretty and about 18 years of age, was brought to the office of Dr. W. W. Frazer by a party of joy riders about noon yesterday.

Her face was heavily bandaged and no names were given. It was stated that a beer bottle had been thrown into the tonneau when the party were having lunch and that the girl had been hit. This was not believed by anyone.

The police secured the name of a man named John Larsen, supposed to have been connected with the case, but this is not thought to have been his real name.

BILLS PUT OUT TO PAY FOR MAIN SEWER ALREADY COMPLETED

Assessment bills were put out yesterday by the city street department to pay for the main sanitary sewer on the west side.

The sewer is already completed, and will drain the whole territory known as the west side, and including the East Richmond addition and the Nicholl subdivision.

G. W. Cushing & Co. were the contractors who performed the work.

The real names of the party are well known to the police, who refused to give any information and are admittedly protecting the parties.

The young men and the other woman are supposed to have been from Richmond, one of them, it is everywhere stated, being a rather well known young man about town.

The doctor's bill was paid by check and Dr. Fraser said he could not make out the signature, but the bank took it without difficulty.

The entire party was intoxicated. After the girl's wounds were dressed the automobile went in the direction of Oakland.

Few paid any attention to the auto except to notice the bandaged woman, but as the party was quiet there was nothing especially noteworthy to attract attention.

It was only after rumors of some sort of trouble near Grand Canyon Park came in that the incident was recalled.

As it stands now the police know what the trouble was, who the girls and young men were, and are protecting them even though a serious assault was undoubtedly committed.

And a young girl is disfigured, probably for life.

RICHEST KENTUCKIAN IS NEWEST MEMBER OF UNITED STATES SENATE

SENATOR CAMDEN.

Johnson N. Camden, who succeeds the late William O. Bradley in the United States Senate, is rated the richest man in Kentucky. His fortune is variously estimated from $15,000,000 upward and he has thousands of acres of bluegrass farm-land, mine properties and other assets galore. He inherited a fortune from his father, who was a United States senator from West Virginia, whose holdings of mine properties ran into the millions. Camden is a Democrat.

POLICE DEPARTMENT AS USUAL DID NOT KNOW

Bob Shotwell, by occupation a "pearl diver," and by habit an occupant of the Richmond city jail, was again confined in Chief Walker's boarding house last night.

He was arrested in Oakland, and returned to Richmond by Officer Sam Wright. The charge was petit larceny.

What he stole, and by whom the warrant was issued, was kept a secret by the police department. They stated that they did not know.

PIONEER RESIDENT GOES TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Mary Cox, a pioneer resident of Richmond, was taken to the county hospital at Martinez yesterday by Constable V. A. Floyd.

EAGLES DRUM CORPS MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR BIG RAG DANCE

Point Richmond Aerle No. 354 Drum Corps, Eagles, are making great preparations for a good time at the rag dance which they will give at East Shore Park on the evening of July 18. The boys are popular and the attendance will be the largest of any affair they have had this season.

GILROY PIONEER PASSES AWAY AT HOME

In the early hours of yesterday morning, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Gardner, a native of Illinois, and a pioneer settler of Gilroy, passed away at her home, 439 Thirtieth street.

Burial will be made at Gilroy, to which the body will be shipped today. The remains are now in the Smallwood undertaking parlors.

Mrs. Gardner was the widow of Hafford J. Gardner, who was well known in Gilroy, and died in that city five years ago.

The deceased leaves a daughter, Mrs. Minnie Rives, residing at San Francisco, and a son, Henry N. Gardner, living at Los Banos.

Anxious Wives, Mothers and Babes, Bearing Brunt Of Capital's Attack on Labor

Daily News Special.

Stockton, July 14.—For the union men and women of Stockton, for the wives and children of union men, for the mothers, sisters and sweethearts of union men, Sunday was a day of anxiety, with the M. M. & E. actively and openly preparing to crush organized labor.

It was not a Sunday of excursions or shows or little concerts in the parlors, or a day of weeding in the gardens. Their living in jeopardy, their modest homes in danger, the future of their children threatened, the men and women of labor abandoned the usual Sunday diversions and spent the day around the different union headquarters, discussing the war that is coming down on them.

There were baby carriages at the foot of the stairs in the Central Labor Council, and you couldn't help but ask yourself how many babies and mothers and fathers and kitchens and gardens were represented in the labor organizations of Stockton.

Upon these organizations the homes of 5000 trade unionists are resting. Wrapped up in the unions are the futures of, say, 10,000 children, and the hopes of thousands of mothers.

They can't break these unions without breaking the hearts of mothers.

They can't do it without breaking the spirits of thousands of California's best citizenship.

They can't break these unions without wringing all of the joy out of the souls of thousands of little children.

The gentlemen of the M. M. & E. know all that. But—"We are in this fight to win," says L. S. Calkins, secretary, "and we will win."

Yesterday a union man said: "I know an old woman who is going to church to pray to God that they won't break us. She's my mother. She's pretty old. She remembers the time when we had no unions. She knows what I was up against then. They worked me ten hours a day and we never had enough to eat."

"The old lady has had a little comfort towards the end of her days, and she knows what brought it—the unions."

That may sound somely but it's the truth.

These unions mean light and life and hope to these men and women who have built up Stockton in the sweat of their faces.

Around the headquarters of the building trades, the workers say homely things and everything is plain

POLICE FAILED TO LOCATE CAUSE OF LIGHTS

The police department was called to the First Methodist church last night. Mysterious lights were seen by residents near the church and burglary, ghosts and various other possible explanations were offered, but members of the police department were unable to discover the cause of the lights.

The call came in from several persons shortly after 10 o'clock last night, and officers were rushed to the church immediately.

A thorough search of the premises failed to give forth the slightest clue as to the mysterious lights, and the theory is advanced by the police that it was a burglar, who became frightened by the neighbors.

HUERTA WILL GET OUT WITHIN FEW DAYS

Washington, July 14.—Late today the state department received advice that Huerta's resignation was certain within a day or so. This developed after a conference between Secretary Bryan and Minister Suarez of Chile.

CAPTURE OF THIEF IN ACT PREVENTS SERIES OF RAIDS

With empty cement sacks in his wagon to the value of $120 in his possession, and confessing to the theft, George W. Collins was arrested last night by Officer Joe Munday as a result of a trap set by the Oakland and Alameda police, working in conjunction with the Richmond office.

The arrest was made at the Page construction camp, near El Cerito Hill. This was the first of a series of three raids, which would have netted the men in the neighborhood of $1200. The men were captured before they had the time to carry out the rest of the burglaries which are supposed to have been planned.

Rudolph Haurstien, a Jew of Alameda, was enlisted to carry on the stealing of sacks for Collins. A campaign was planned which the men confessed to have included the Hutchinson construction camp and others within reach of a night's ride in the wagon.

The Oakland police were tipped to the affair by some one who was on the inside of the game, and they notified the Richmond police force that the affair was to be pulled off. They learned that the pair were driving a white horse in a red wagon. They also had descriptions of the two men.

The sacks were loaded on the wagon at El Cerito Hill. The place was broken into, and the candle used to search the place and other pieces of evidence were obtained by the police, although the men deny that they broke into the place, saying that they got the sacks outside of the barn.

Officer Barry had all of the men on the night police force watching the streets for the men. At shortly after 11 o'clock Officer Munday made the arrest on Cutting boulevard, and Collins was taken to the jail.

Working on the job, with the Richmond police, were Inspector Gallagher and Officer Waldman of the Oakland police force.

REGISTRATION RETURNS GIVE REPUBLICANS LEAD

Registration returns from all the 58 counties of the state, up to July 6, have been filed with the secretary of state and the figures show the Republicans in the lead over the Progressives by 204,220 and the Democrats by 182,749. The Republicans are only 1826 short of equaling the total of both the Democratic and Progressive parties. The Democrats lead the Progressives by 21,471.

Secretary of State Jordan estimates a total registration of 1,100,000 by October 3, the last day of registration for the general election, and figures that by that time if the same ratio of increase that has prevailed since the books opened continues, the Republicans will lead the Progressives by 245,000. The figures show the following condition of affairs:

Republicans	388,895
Democrats	206,146
Progressives	184,675
Socialists	50,741
Prohibitionists	28,199
Decline to state	70,041
Miscellaneous	2,189

Total 930,886

The three counties which reported yesterday, making the list complete, were: Calaveras—Republicans, 1478; Democrats, 975; Progressives, 171; Socialists, 147. Nevada—Republicans, 1915; Democrats, 1402; Progressives, 545; Socialists, 303. Plumas—Republicans, 712; Democrats, 211; Progressives, 412; Socialists, 137.

NEW SCHOOL TO BE STARTED AT ONCE

A third of the $150,000 bond issue for school buildings will be used for the construction of a school building at the corner of Twenty-third street and Main.

This was the decision of the Board of Education at their meeting held Monday night.

The plans for the new building includes twelve rooms, an assembly room, and many modern ideas will be incorporated in the specifications.

It was stated that the contract for the work and plans would be given to Architect E. Stone of Stockton.

The proposed lavatory system for the Tenth street school was also passed.

Work on both will commence at once.

MRS. ENGLEMAN BURIED IN SUNSET VIEW

The funeral of Mrs. H. Engleman took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of the Clarke Undertaking company. Interment was held in Sunset View Cemetery, and there were many friends of the deceased present.

The Rev. Guy White, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached the funeral services.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING TO BE CALLED

A chamber of commerce for Richmond!

With the above as a slogan, the first gun in a fight which has been under the surface of Richmond's civic activities for many years, was fired.

A room at 1312 Macdonald avenue has been offered as a meeting place, and a call has been issued for the organization of a committee to be known as the chamber of commerce formation committee. Several citizens have signified their intention of calling the first meeting of this committee this week for the laying of the first plans and discussing the best and most speedy means of starting the new organization.

It is planned to have the body self-supporting, drawing its support from its members, who will be merchants, professional men and public spirited citizens.

"I will do everything in my power," said P. L. Griffin, a local realty operator, "to assist in the banding together of representative Richmond men. The hall in the rear of our office can be used as quarters for the new body, and I will be glad to offer it for any preliminary meetings in the hope of getting things started."

A BERKELEY BANK CASHIER IS DEFAULTER

R. D. Parish, assistant cashier of the South Berkeley bank, has been discharged because of irregularities in his accounts. The alleged shortages were discovered last Thursday by E. K. Cole, the cashier, who said today that the amount is less than $5000. Parish's bond is held by the National Surety Company of San Francisco, and if Parish is prosecuted it will be by the bonding company, not by the bank.

AUTO CRASHES INTO PASSENGER ALIGHTING FROM STREET CAR

While alighting from a street car, and in an attempt to reach the opposite side of the street, Mack Henry, 25 Glenn avenue, crashed heavily into the Winehaven passenger automobile.

Henry was not seriously injured, although thrown forcibly to the ground. He sustained several bruises and skinned elbows.

The street car had stopped to let off passengers and Henry states that there was not sufficient distance between where the car passed and the automobile.

THE MAYOR'S VIEW.

The Daily News rather admires the frankness with which Mayor Garrard declared himself in favor of the Wall city hall site offer at the council meeting Monday night.

We do not agree with Mayor Garrard in his principal contention that the council, having made a contract with the Wall interests, should disregard more advantageous offers, namely, an added inducement of $21,000, simply because the council acted with a little too much haste in accepting the Wall offer.

But we do admire, as we say, Mr. Garrard's frankness in declaring his position in the matter, and it is creditable to him, even though he did say some rather pointed things about the newspapers, which, of course, were meant solely for the Daily News, and we would like to have seen every other councilman on the board declare himself as frankly, no matter on what side.

Mayor Garrard last Monday night did the very thing the Daily News has been urging all the councilmen to do. He came out frankly, flatfootedly, honestly and fearlessly and declared just why he voted against calling the election, just how he feels and believes about the city hall site, and now the public knows what to expect from Mr. Garrard, and why.

The mayor has placed his personal attitude above criticism by that act, no matter what may be said of his official views and his official acts. He is entitled to believe what he chooses and he is entitled to make a mistake occasionally the same as any other human.

So our hand is out to Mayor Garrard on that declaration of policy.

And, incidentally, while we are handing the mayor a little merited commendation, we desire to say we believe the list of standing committees was not only fairly, but wisely, made up. It could not have been better, the selections showed much careful thought, and we wish to compliment Mayor Garrard on that.

And now we are going to disagree with his honor the mayor for a moment.

He said the papers—this paper, of course—had misrepresented the action of the council to the people.

We wish to call to the mayor's attention the fact that we said the council had refused in the face of the city charter to call an election petitioned for by a proper initiative petition. That was true.

This paper did not, and even up to this time has not, declared itself for any of the city hall sites offered.

We took the position that when a question is up, and the city council is petitioned by the proper number of voters to put that question before the people, the COUNCIL HAS NO ALTERNATIVE UNDER THE CITY CHARTER PROVISIONS BUT TO CALL THAT ELECTION.

Mr. Garrard said the council had followed out its legal adviser in a way. Maybe it did, but the city attorney advised the council specifically that under the charter provisions the council must call the election when it was properly petitioned for.

Now, so far as Mayor Garrard's contention that the council is in duty bound to accept the Wall offer at this time, the Daily News believes it is a serious question as to whether the city council has the moral right to decide and accept any proposition of such public importance without first referring the matter to the people for their vote. If the Wall proposition had been referred to the people for vote at the time it was made, and had been accepted, the city hall would have in all probability, been under way unless some objection had come up.

But so long as any proposition is open, it is the city's right to accept the better one, whatever that one may be.

If the city through its council entered into a binding contract with the Wall interests, the Wall interests have recourse to the courts and may recover damages in event that contract is abrogated.

So far as the contract made by the council with the Wall interests not being eligible to referendum because a motion instead of a resolution was employed to enter into the agreement, is concerned, the courts of New Jersey, and later in a case in El Paso, Texas, it was held that a motion may to intent and purpose be a resolution, whether the word "resolution" is employed or not.

If a motion which has the effect of a resolution were not referable to vote, the city council could absolutely, and with impunity, evade every charter provision and every provision of law which gives the people the right of initiative and referendum.

In the courts of New Jersey and Texas, the best two opinions on the subject ever handed down in this country, held that A MOTION when it has the effect of a resolution, or when it is employed to enter into a contract of public importance, is TO ALL INTENTS AND PURPOSES A RESOLUTION, AND IS SUBJECT TO REFERENDUM VOTE THE SAME AS A RESOLUTION, AND THE DAILY NEWS IS WILLING TO GO ON RECORD AS PREDICTING THAT THE COURTS OF CALIFORNIA WILL HOLD THE SAME TENET.

The Daily News is not setting itself up as being a better lawyer than Mr. Hall, nor as being a lawyer at all. It is merely citing what the courts have held.

And, so far as Mr. Garrard's contention is concerned, the fact that the city council refused to call an election when an initiative petition was properly presented is established beyond quibble. The fact that the city council should have called that election under the charter provisions is established by the charter itself.

The fact that the council ignored the charter when it refused to call the election is established beyond argument.

The intent of the council in doing that may be a matter for debate. The councilmen might have committed an error of judgment, and at no time has the Daily News accused them of personal ulterior motives. It said specifically it was dealing with five councilmen who, AS COUNCILMEN, COMMITTED A COUNCILMANIC ACT WITH WHICH THIS PAPER TOOK ISSUE.

We are not taking issue at this time with Garrard the citizen, we are taking issue WITH THE MAYOR.

Mr. Garrard has a right to his personal opinion without criticism. If his opinions are wrong his mistake is a private and personal one.

MAYOR GARRARD HAS A RIGHT TO HIS OFFICIAL OPINION, AND THAT OPINION IS A FIT SUBJECT FOR EDITORIAL COMMENT, BECAUSE IT IS A PUBLIC ONE, AND MAYOR GARRARD'S MISTAKES ARE PUBLIC ONES AND CONCERN THE PUBLIC.

But we would like to see the other councilmen be as frank with the people as Mayor Garrard has been. It is healthy, clean, commendable statesmanship, even if he be wrong in his opinions as mayor.

A WORD TO THE WORKER.

While the people, the working people, are racking their tired brains in an endeavor to fathom the intricacies of the many measures, both progressive and retrogressive, which are to come before the voters this fall, they should not neglect to place a large portion of their time at the task of studying and advocating the proposed eight-hour law.

There is all kinds of literature on both sides of the question at your disposal, so that there is no excuse for not voting and voting intelligently at the polls this fall.

An excuse that you have not the time is no excuse at all, for at the present time there are enough men in the state that have all the time there is at their disposal owing to the shortage of work.

While you are thinking and reading, try to find a reason for your leisure.

Inquire, read and think if there is a commodity or production that is not in advance of the demand.

In reading you will find that the commodity that is the most overstocked is labor.

Without the application of labor to the natural resources there would be no production.

If labor is applied to these natural resources the application results in production and where there is no demand a waste of labor and these resources are ultimate consequences.

These resources we always have. They will keep in their natural state, but blood and sinew deteriorates with inactivity to a healthy degree, and the evolution of the race is retarded as much by inactivity as by overtaxation of human strength.

Idleness on the part of any person, whether it be voluntary or forced, is a waste.

An equalization and just distribution of labor in the production of just enough to supply the demand, or as nearly so as possible, would seem to be a remedy for a waste of both energy (brawn) and material.

And do not forget, Mr. Worker, that your brain will stagnate from want of exercise as quickly as your blood. THINK!

HASEY WILL NOT FILE NOMINATION PAPERS

Edwin M. Hasey, Democratic candidate for the Assembly, has definitely announced that he will not continue in the race. This leaves as the only candidate for the Democratic nomination Clare Horner. Hasey has not filed his nomination papers and last night concluded that he would not do so.

Up to date the only candidate for the Republican nomination for the Assembly from this district is D. J. Lucey of Port Costa.

It is said that Will R. Sharkey of the Contra Costa Standard will make a shy at the Progressive nomination, but this rumor has not yet been confirmed.

In addition to these, Michael Iversen, the Socialist nominee, is a force to be reckoned with.

WILL HOMESTEAD LAND, MAYBE TAKE WIFE

C. C. Nel, a local realty operator, has returned from a trip to Mendocino county, with the statement that he will homestead land on the line of the Northwestern Railway in that county.

Friends of the bachelor real estate man aver that there is a purpose more deep than the acquiring of land, and hint that he may return from his six months' stay, which is the required time for homesteading the railroad company's property, with a wife.

When quizzed by impertinent friends yesterday, Nel said: "Well, I ain't says as I ain't."

The date at which he will leave to take up the land has not been decided upon.

A Horse Is Worthless

Unless he is correctly shod. To shoe a horse correctly, a shoer must have experience and knowledge. I have studied shoeing for 16 years, having graduated from the shoeing school in Altona, Germany in August, 1902 and I ought to know something about it and I do. But I don't know it all. In fact I never expect to. You see there is so much to shoeing horses correctly that a man doesn't live long enough to learn it all. That's why you cannot afford to have an inexperienced man to work on your horses.

LABOR NEWS

"In unity there is

OPEN SHOP WAR IS
WAXING MORE SERIOUS
DAILY AT STOCKTON

Stockton, July 14.—At a meeting of the Central Labor Council last night official endorsement of the unions was withdrawn from the News Advocate, a labor paper published here. The editor requested the council to act in the matter, so it stated, though labor leaders say the council intended to take such action, because, it is alleged, the paper was not supporting the labor cause as it should do in the present open-shop controversy that has been on here since July 8.

An open-shop lumber concern endeavored to unload a quantity of glass at a garage that is being erected by a union contractor with union help at a late hour last night, but James Mulcahy, the contractor, refused to permit it, and the police were called to the scene. They merely stood by and the glass was carted back to the plant. This is the first open attempt to place "unfair" material on a union job after regular working hours, and the labor leaders are active today to prevent the success of any similar acts in the future.

The metal workers were notified that provision has been made for them for several weeks' strike benefits, a total allowance of $2000 having been voted them by the San Francisco metal workers.

Work on several public school buildings ceased when "unfair material" arrived, and ten garment workers quit work, four of whom later returned.

LEATHER MERCHANT URGES
RECOGNITION OF UNIONS

Following the declaration of John Wanamaker, the merchant prince of Philadelphia and New York, in favor of organizing union labor comes a similar statement from John S. Kent, a prominent leather merchant of Boston, who says:

"I firmly believe that under the present conditions we should fully recognize union labor and work out our labor problems with the representatives of our workmen.

NEW UNION IS ORGANIZED AT VALLEJO

A new union of blacksmiths and helpers has been organized in Vallejo. The organization is known as Blacksmiths and Helpers' Union No. 82. The officers were recently installed by George Sandeman, president of the San Francisco local.

The good home cooked meals for 25c at Hotel Richelleu, 1714 Macdonald avenue, are making a hit with the workmen.

REPRESENTATIVES OF
55,000 MEN ARE IN FAVOR OF STRIKING

Chicago, July 14.—It was announced by W. S. Carter, for the employees, that the vote of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was 97.27 per cent and that of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen was 99.2 per cent in favor of a strike.

Representatives of 55,000 engineers and firemen on 98 western railroads today declared that they would not accept federal arbitration of their wage differences, but would continue negotiations with their employers. It was also announced that firemen and engineers had voted almost unanimously in favor of a strike should their requests be refused by the railroads.

CLOSED SHOP TO BE BASIS OF AGREEMENT

A closed shop agreement has been drafted by the Pacific District Council of Electrical Workers, and will shortly be submitted to the Pacific Gas & Electric Co.

This agreement provides that only union men shall be employed in all departments of all the plants operated by the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. The agreement has already been approved by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, and has been submitted for the approval of central labor bodies in districts liable to be affected in case the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. refuse to accept the agreement.

It is claimed that since the strike of a year ago the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. has maintained open-shop conditions in its outside work, except in San Francisco and immediate vicinity.

STEAM FITTERS
INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Installation of officers was the order of business at the meeting of the Steam Fitters last evening and the following officers were installed: I. E. Philbrook, president; O. F. Lilly, vice president; Fred Yarbrough, treasurer; H. A. Grover, recording secretary; Joe Bedberry, inside secretary.

The union also voted the sum of $15 for the benefit of Clifford Hottinger, who is in the hospital at San Francisco.

The report of the smoker committee was accepted.

Little Discussions of Love and Marriage

BY BARBARA BOYD

A REMEDY FOR INCOMPATIBILITY

"Bert and Helen are going to get a divorce on the ground of incompatibility," said the Bachelor.

"Incompatibility!" mused the Bachelor Girl. "How that little inoffensive term is stretched, these days, to cover some of the worst traits of character!"

"I do not think incompatibility is a little thing," objected the Bachelor. "It can cause a good deal of unhappiness."

"Perhaps it is not so much that it is little," admitted the Bachelor Girl. "as it is that it is misused. Why don't the two see, before they are married, that they are incompatible?"

"They can't replied the Bachelor. "That is just what Bert and Helen decided—that it was impossible to know they were incompatible until they had lived together and really came to know each other."

"I don't believe that," protested the Bachelor Girl, decisively. "To me, there are two phases of incompatibility—one that is real incompatibility, and this can be very easily discovered before marriage; and the other that isn't incompatibility at all, but sometimes much worse. And it is this that most couples call incompatibility and use as a ground for divorce. Real incompatibility there sometimes is, though if the two really cared for each other, their differences would be overlooked. But if one of them has tastes of one kind that are really a part of herself, and the other has tastes of another kind that are equally a fundamental part of himself, if they cannot pleasantly agree to differ on these things, there is incompatibility that will make trouble. But the tiniest grain of discernment would discover this before marriage. If she likes card parties and dances and theatre, and he is a recluse, I should not think they would need to wait to be married to find out their dissimilar tastes. Or if she is extravagant and he miserly, surely they could see these traits in each other before they go to the altar."

"Somehow or other, they think these things won't matter," observed the Bachelor.

"That's because they don't think," rejoined the Bachelor Girl. "If they would think a little, and follow these traits out to their obvious results, they could not fail to see the conclusion of the whole matter. But it isn't this genuine incompatibility that most couples suffer from. It is what they choose to call incompatibility but which in reality is something quite different. When they were engaged or first married, they were living up to the best that was in them. They were true to their best selves. They began to lapse, to settle back into selfishness or laziness or whatever bad habits may have been fastened upon them. And then of course differences crept in. She blames him. He criticises her. And finally they discover they are incompatible, as they call it. But it is their false selves that are incompatible, not the true beautiful selves that in the beginning loved each other. If the wife's first love and enthusiasm would return, she would cease being extravagant, or lazy, or neglectful of her home. She couldn't be, if the fire of love burned as brilliantly and intensely as it did in the beginning. If he felt the same tender regard for her that he did when he thought she was the most wonderful creature that ever walked the earth, he wouldn't drink, or neglect his home, or fail to provide for her. That is what incompatibility is in most cases. And so they get a divorce and separate. And then perhaps they meet somebody else, and once more the best in them comes to the surface. And, whether the story is repeated or not, depends upon whether they will live up to the best of which they are capable, or whether they will again live down to the worst."

"Love then would solve the problem, wouldn't it?" mused the Bachelor? "Yes," responded the Bachelor Girl. "Love is the solvent for all problems and all trouble. For it is the power that harmonises. And when there is harmony there is peace and happiness."

CALWAS WANT TO FIND WORTHY OPPONENT

Still crowing over their victory over the Alameda team, the Calwa team are surveying the baseball horizon in the hopes of finding a team that will give them a good run for their money.

The Goats of Goat Island declined a game, stating that they did not feel strong enough to wallop the Winehaven boys.

Several other games have also been attempted, but no arrangements made.

Captain Richardson stated that towards the latter part of the season a game with the Richmond Elks would be likely.

Since the return of the management of Richardson, the team has renewed its enthusiasm, and plan that the rest of the season will be one continuous round of victories for Winehaven.

BOXING GAME IS GIVEN BIG BOOST

The boxing game was given a big boost when the committee of the International Athletic association voted to have boxing included in the 1916 Olympic games at Berlin. Efforts were made to prevent boxing being included in the program, but the committee, after giving it every consideration, decided that boxing was entitled to a place, and as a result there will be all kinds of amateur boxing events at the games in Berlin in 1916. There is no reason why boxing should be barred from these games, for it is certainly one of the oldest of athletic sports, and dates back to the time of Romans. There are many high class amateur boxers in Europe, especially in England, and most of them are very well to do. It is certain that the United States will send a large delegation of amateurs to compete in the tournament to be held in Berlin, and there is little doubt that Australia will follow suit. France has taken such a great interest in the fighting game the past few years that they will no doubt have a full entry from the amateurs, and the same can be said of England, so that all in all there should be some very interesting contests as a result.

MERCHANTS ORGANIZE TO PULL BASEBALL TEAM OUT OF HOLE

Recognizing the fact that the Richmond baseball team has been doing as much, if not more, than any one factor in keeping the town on the map, the merchants of the city have resolved themselves into an organization to pull the club out of its financial difficulties. There is now a deficit of about $500 which the club must face. This amount it has been determined to raise and those interested in the welfare of the team will not stop until they have the cash in hand.

An organization known as the Richmond Baseball Association has been formed. D. J. Hall is president, Harry Pulse treasurer and George Carrere secretary. These with J. A. Galvin and Howard French constitute a committee for the purpose of raising the money required. The club has been running behind financially while winning games all along the line. The utmost revenue in the way of business support that has been received has not been over $75 a month, while the expenses when playing traveling teams is in the vicinity of $125 a game. Gates until recently have been only about $25 or $30 a game. The last Martinez game was better and there is no doubt from the interest in the forthcoming game here next Sunday that there will be a large attendance, but it will be badly needed to offset the loss last Sunday.

A generous response is anticipated from merchants when it is remembered that the winning Richmond team has been a splendid advertisement for the Terminal City.

BERGER TO GIVE PRIZE FOR HOMER

H. J. Berger, the new district manager of the Frankfort Insurance Co., is an enthusiastic baseball fan. He was one of the first subscribers in the new attempt to clear off the club's financial deficit, handing over $5 at once and in addition offering another $5 to the first member of the team making a home run. Several of the boys have announced that they will have a try for that fiver next Sunday.

INDIAN PITCHER BEATEN UP BY CATCHER

An interesting story is told in Federal League circles of a fight at Kansas City between Catcher Skipper Roberts of the Pittsburg team and Pitcher Johnson, the Indian who jumped from Cincinnati to Kansas City.

The Indian got off the reservation and went after Roberts, who came back and beat the red man up to a fare-you-well. Services of a surgeon were necessary to repair the damage done. Roberts really got the worst of it, though, for the Pittsburg club fired him.

PETALUMA WILL BRING LARGE CROWD SUNDAY

The management of the Richmond Elks look for a great game with Petaluma here next Sunday. They were beaten Sunday when tired and worn with the hard trip and without food or warming up practice. This coming Sunday they declare they will win to a certainty. Petaluma has a strong team, probably the strongest the boys have encountered this year, and they do not underestimate them. The game will be closely contested and those attending can be assured that there will be some real ball.

Petaluma is coming down strong, promising a crowd of about 400. The steamer Gold will probably be used to bring the excursionists, although Manager Healey of that place has not yet completed arrangements.

The line-up of both teams will probably be identical with last Sunday, which is good enough for anybody.

TY COBB'S RECORD LONG LIST OF SCRAPS

Tyrus Raymond Cobb has had an eventful career since he became a Tiger. In addition to having led the American League in swatting he has taken on several engagements off the ball field. Chief of these are:

Hit a negro asphalt worker on Woodward avenue in Detroit. Warrant issued.

Caused the entire Detroit ball club to be turned out of the Copley Square Hotel in Boston for alleged improper conduct.

Got into a fight with night watchman in the Euclid Hotel in Cleveland. Used a knife on him. Case went to grand jury. Detroit club spent more than $1000 to get him out of trouble.

Fought on the diamond with Charlie Schmidt, Ala., and was beaten.

Was turned out of the Chicago Beach Hotel at Chicago for using alleged improper language within hearing distance of women guests. Became angry because Jennings would not take the team away and quit, returning to Detroit.

Went into the stands in New York and beat a spectator, Johnson suspended him and the team went out on strike.

Had a fight with Eddie Sijever in the lobby of a hotel in St. Louis.

Attacked "Scabby," a newsboy, after an argument over a game of "craps" in the Detroit Club house. Soon after that Cobb was stabbed one night while on his way to the train. Cobb concluded that the men who attacked him were friends of "Scabby" and met the newsboy alone and gave him a beating.

While taking a team of semi-pro players through the South last spring took objection to the remarks of a young collegian during a game and afterwards assaulted him in a hotel.

Drew a pistol on proprietor of butcher shop and assaulted assistant, whom he declared insulted Mrs. Cobb. Arrested and released on bail. Pleading guilty later and paid fine.

HOWARD LEADING COAST LEAGUE STICKERS

Del Howard is still leading the stickers in the Coast league with an average of .348. Del did great things against the Portland heavers last week and bettered his average by ten points. Buddy Ryan is still second, though he remained at the same figure of last week, .326. Rowdy Elliott is back in third place, after taking a big drop. He came up from .313 to .322 in the series against the Oaks. Bill Abstein shows the most improvement of any of the stickers for the last three weeks. Three weeks ago he was batting .296, last week .311, while this week his average is .319. Rube Gardner, the Oaks' first sacker, is coming up fast and now is batting at a .315 clip.

HALF WAY FLAG IS NEARLY REACHED

The six Coast clubs, comprising the Pacific Coast league, are rapidly nearing the half way flag in the annual pennant race and the fans all around the circuit are experiencing the first preliminary thrill, corresponding to the feeling in the bosoms of a race-track crowd when the ponies swing into the home stretch.

A sufficient test of strength has been made to warrant a prediction as to the three clubs that will be fighting it out in the last days of October. From present indications, the pennant fight lies between Los Angeles, Portland and Venice.

San Francisco, Sacramento and Oakland have been thrown out of stride so severely that they do not figure to be able to catch the flying leaders.

WANTS HOLIDAYS TO FALL ON MONDAYS

Cleveland, July 11.—"All holidays Monday" is the plan which has been worked out by J. F. Hatton, an official of the Cleveland water works department. Hatton would also rearrange the distribution of holidays so that they would fall on approximately regular intervals instead of in groups as is now the case.

Hatton points out that his plan would be welcomed by all workers because 10 times each year it would give them a short vacation of two and one-half days. Employers would also endorse it, he thinks, because a 10-day which falls in the middle of the week hampers their work.

Washington's birthday, under the proposed scheme, would fall on the first Monday following February 22; Lincoln's day would be transferred to the first Monday in April. Then would follow Memorial day the last Monday in May, Independence day the first Monday in July, and Civic day the first Monday in August.

Labor day would fall on the first Monday in September, as it does now; Columbus day on the second Monday in October and Thanksgiving the last in November would complete the list, except Christmas and New Year's which Hatton would leave unchanged.

With the help of progressive associates Hatton will attempt to have his plan framed into a bill and introduced at the next session of Congress.

ESCAPED AGNEW MAN CAUSES SENSATION

John Kelly, an escapee from Agnews Insane Asylum, ran amuck in H. J. Williams' barber shop yesterday morning.

He made an attempt, for no apparent reason, on the life of Poundmaster Smith, according to statements of onlookers, by taking a razor from the barber and making for the throat of Smith.

He is also accused of attempting to kiss one of the barbers.

He was taken to the city jail and will be returned to Agnews.

"A LEECH OF INDUSTRY," RAILROAD DRAMA AT THE RICHMOND TODAY

IRVING CUMMINGS.

In these days when something new springs up almost every hour, the moving picture companies have to strain a point to keep pace with the public.

But there is one thing which has yet to happen. That is to send an automobile load of people right in the path of an engine and have them thrown out and the machine wrecked for the sake of the public.

This is what occurs in the great railroad drama, "A Leech of Industry."

The cast consists of Irving Cummings, who has made the Pathe pictures such a great success; Eleanor Woodruff, the pretty American star, also plays a leading part, and James Ryley and Eudora Jose figure in the limelight very prominently. Earl Sinclair, one of the greatest child impersonators, has a role to her liking in the big film.

In addition to these there will be four other good reels. Next Friday a five-reel picture, "The Lion and the Mouse," which is really greater than "The Gambler," but by the same author, will be shown.

LITTLE PLEASURE NOW IN HOMES OF WORKERS

and simple and maybe a little dusty there.

"I've paid up two months' rent and put up a lot of beans and potatoes," said a man with a little boy by the hand.

That's the labor movement, as plain as an old shoe.

SPEAK IN WHISPERS.

Across the street, in the Stockton hotel, the headquarters of the M. M. & E., it's different. There the carpet is so thick you can't hear yourself walking and when a man coughs he coughs behind his hand. And when they speak it is about something loftier than beans and potatoes—usually. The Stockton hotel is a grand place, as uncommon as the Labor Council is common. A lot of money goes over that bar every day and everybody is polished and clever—or trying to be.

The town is filling up with strangers. All of these are not workers. The majority are not. The majority are the ones who want to get on the M. M. & E. payroll as "guards." They make a business of going to places where trouble is brewing.

Saturday the writer, talking with Calkins, was obliged to listen to one of these men applying for a job. "I've been in strikes in Seattle, Chicago, Dayton, Little Falls and other places," he said.

In other words, he was a man who for years had been living off the troubles of others, just like Mr. Calkins himself, and like Irish, the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, both of whom are as much a part of Stockton as this young man who was in the business of blacklegging.

MAN FROM NOWHERE.

It is such men as Irish and Calkins and the young man from nowhere that the union men and women of Stockton, the men and women who built up the town and who are paying taxes and raising families here, must grapple with for the preservation of organized labor.

Lying is no small part of the M. M. & E.'s campaign. "We have all the men we need," said Calkins. "We're turning them away—skilled mechanics, too."

A few minutes later Chris Totten, one of the leaders of the fight and a partner in the Totten & Brandt mill, admitted that his plant was short of men. He wanted 80 men.

He hadn't half a dozen workers in his mill.

There were two "guards" at this mill Saturday. They were furnished by the M. M. & E., for when Totten wanted them taken off his hands he called up Calkins.

LOTS OF NON-UNION CASH.

Calkins has brought in a couple of dozen of these "guards." But there isn't much for them to do, it seems.

But they are patient fellows and there is lots of money on hand with which to pay them.

They are young men with the "gaslight" complexion, which comes from living in the night.

They are gunmen, to use plain English. When they sit down in Mr. Calkins' office they sit down gingerly and something protrudes out of the hip pocket.

Whether they are Thiel "operatives" or Burns "operatives" or Pinkertons, only the M. M. & E. knows. It has been said, however, that Calkins hides his watch and overcoat before they arrive in the morning. So they may be Burns men.

Anxious hearts are not confined to the ranks of labor. Many small merchants and contractors, men who can't afford to fight and who don't want to fight, are trembling for the future.

That many of the small employers have been coerced into joining the M. M. & E. is the contention of the union men.

FORCED INTO ASSOCIATION.

"I've joined the association," said a small butcher with whom G. H. Morrill, business agent of the Building Trades Council had been dealing. "They'd put me out of business if I stayed outside."

"They" are the banks and the large supply firms of the M. M. & E. "They" have threatened the credit of the small business man.

"I'm in it," said a contractor, "because they politely notified me that I'd find it pretty hard to find building material outside the association."

It is big business against organized labor in Stockton—nothing else.

WILL VISIT MARTINEZ.

R. W. Seamans, secretary of the 2700 Club, will leave this morning for the county seat in the interests of that organization. He will return on Thursday morning.
